There comes a time during every day when the question we dread crosses our minds: What's for dinner?

We are always looking for options that are easy, healthy and delicious, and many times the three packaged together are difficult to find. Additionally, many parents find themselves cooking multiple dinners – one for the adults and one (or more) for the kids, depending on their tastes.

Most nights preparing dinner is difficult, to say the least. This week we are focusing how Prime Time Butcher (8045 Jericho Turnpike, Woodbury – 516.921.6519) can help make dinner time less stressful, less time consuming and less expensive.
